

Constantin (e) Papadimitriou

CIO / Cavamont Holdings Ltd.

CEO / General Oriental Investments S.A.

Current Details: Cavamont Holdings was founded as an investment holding company by Sir James (“Jimmy”) Goldsmith for the exclusive benefit of his family and professionally managed by General Oriental Investments S.A. www.generaloriental.com. Prior to his death in 1997, Jimmy’s fortune was estimated at, circa $2.blm. He was known for identifying undervalued companies with weak managements + great Businesses, taking them over, + turning them around. The most prominent in the US were: Diamond International, Crown Zellerbach and Grand Union, also attempted takeovers of Goodyear Tire & Rubber and BAT. Jimmy was outspoken in his opposition to the establishment of the European Currency (also founded in 1995 The UK Referendum Party), but was very supportive of a Europe of regions.

Founding Partner of Diorasis International, a company having recently made an investment in Philosofish www.philosofish.gr a prime quality aqua farming in Greece (sea bass and sea bream). Diorasis is also involved in Luxury Hotel Projects in prime locations in Greece.

Positions previously held during his time at the Cavamont Group: executive committee, CFO, Manager of the Private Equity Portfolio with active involvement on the boards of various invested companies or subsidiaries of the group in the Gaming, Hospitality, Mining and Oil & Gas sectors.

Chairman of the Greek School of Geneva and Lausanne (www.ecolegrecque.ch). In 2014 the school introduced coding as a course, becoming the first school in Switzerland to do so.

University of Geneva: business and finance degree (1982) and postgraduate diploma in European Studies IUEE (1985)

